Tamar, I was reorganizing all my tour bus info, and found this relic from 1998.

As you can see, this issue has long been on the agenda.

I'll be interested to hear what counsel to PUC says about our interesting exemption and I am hopeful they will agree this is anachronistic. On Thursday, I have a board meeting for Hollywood BID and I am briefing them on this progress. Can I give them a ball park on when we might hear something back from the PUC?

Many thanks

Kerry

Kerry, I am in the field all day today.

I will call the attorney back after court tomorrow, and see if she has an answer for me.

Thanks.

Kerry,
I spoke with her this morning, and she told me someone was researching this for us. She was hoping to have an answer today. I am headed out to meetings, so I gave her my cell number. I will let you know what she says.

Kerry.

I have been back and forth with the PUC and attorneys from our office, and no one really knows why this section is in the LAMC. That being said, I spoke with Ana Guerrero in Garcetti's office to see if he would like to introduce a motion in Council to delete this section. She indicated that she was interested in moving forward on this.

I have let the attorneys in our office who staff DOT and Public Works know that this is in the pipeline.

Hope this helps.

-Tamar

Tamar... I was holding my breath...afraid of what this email might say.

This is VERY GOOD news...and I think will go a long way to solve some of the core issues out there.

Let me communicate with Ana and Angela on this, and reinforce this in our official recommendation to the city that we've been hammering out with the tour operators.

Thank you so much for looking into this!
